Our Immigration Team

Mr. Tariq Rashid

Head of Immigration Team

Mr. Tariq Rashid is a qualified solicitor. He is founder of the firm; which was established in 1998. He is routinely involved in advising and successfully preparing applications for leave to enter or remain in the UK in all categories, including study, work, business or family settlement visas, as well as applications for indefinite leave to remain and naturalisation applications.

Mr. Tariq Rashid is highly experienced in dealing with complex immigration matters in all areas including applications for immigration bail, appeals at the first-tier and upper tribunal as well as judicial reviews. These include cases involving deportation orders of foreign nationals following criminal convictions or those with no formal stay in the UK.

He is also fluent in speaking, Urdu, Mirpuri, and Punjabi.

Other team members

Mr. Tahir Malik is a trainee solicitor and will be qualifying as solicitor by the end of the year 2021, he is managing his own case load under the direct supervision and guidance of Mr. Tariq Rashid.

He also undertakes work in Family Law which gives him a better insight into Article 8 and family applications.
